

Hear My Cry, O God!

1. Thou Prince of glo - ry, slain for me, In deep dis - tress I fly to Thee
 2. A lab - ring, hea - vy - la - den soul, On Thee my ev - 'ry care I roll,
 3. Close to thy pierced and bleed - ing side, In trust - ful love I safe a - bide,
 4. Shel - tered with - in the riv - en Rock, I dread no storm nor tem - pest shock,
 5. Lord, grant that in that joy - ful day, When thou shalt call thy saints a - way,

Who didst my soul re - deem, Who didst my soul re - deem.
 Though bur - dened and dis - tressed, Though bur - dened and dis - tressed.
 By grace di - vine made whole, By grace di - vine made whole.
 But trust thy match - less grace, But trust thy match - less grace,
 By thy com - mand - ing word, By thy com - mand - ing word,

Oh, from thy Fa - ther's throne on high, Hear thou my pen - i - ten - tial cry,
 Thy meek and low - ly grace I see, And take thy yoke and learn of Thee,
 In Thee, my Way, my Truth, my Life, A - mid earth's tur -moil, sin and strife,
 And wait in hope the joy - ful hour, When I shall see Thee come in pow'r,
 That I may join thee in the air; And dwell with all the ho - ly there,

And wash and make me clean, And wash and make me clean.
 For thou wilt give me rest, For thou wilt give me rest.
 I rest my wea - ry soul, I rest my wea - ry soul.
 And gaze up - on thy face, And gaze up - on thy face.
 For - ev - er with the Lord, For - ev - er with the Lord.

Text: H., 1878

Music: Jeremiah Ingalls (1764–1838), 1804

Arrangement: L. M.

Tune Name: Garden Hymn

Poetic Meter: 8 8 6 8 8 6 (C. P. M.)

Source: Songs of Pilgrimage: A Hymnal for the Churches of Christ, 1888 (p. 288)