

Come, Thou Glorious Day of Promise

1. Come, thou glor - ious day of prom - ise, Come and spread thy cheer-ful ray,
2. Lord, How long wilt Thou be an - gry; Shall Thy wrath for - ev - er burn?
3. Oh, that soon Thou wouldst to Ja - cob Thy en - live - ning Spir - it send!

9

When the scat - tered sheep of Is - rael Shall no lon - ger go a - stray;
Rise, re - deem Thine an - cient peo - ple, Their trans - gres - sions from them turn;
Of their un - be - lief and mis - 'ry Make, O Lord, a speed - y end.

17

When ho - san - nas, When ho - san - nas With u - nit - ed voice they'll cry.
King of Is - rael, King of Is - rael, Come and set Thy peo - ple free.
Lord, Mes - si - ah! Lord Mes - si - ah! Prince of Peace o'er Is - rael reign.

Text: Attributed to Alexander Neibaur (1808–1883 or 1808–1876)

Music: A. C. Smyth (1840–1909)

Tune Name: Ruth

Source: Relief Society Song Book, 1919—no. 20